Jeanne Elizabeth Sharpe Weds Jeremiah Sullivan

White seasonal flowers adorned the altar of St. James Church, Wellesley, on March 20 for the wedding of Miss Jeanne Elizabeth Sharpe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Sharpe of 20 Chesterton rd., and Mr. Jeremiah Joseph Sullivan, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah J. Sullivan of Milton. The 11:00 o'clock ceremony performed by Rev. Robert Turner was followed by a reception at Beacon Terrace Framingham.

The bride's ivory silk faille gown was fashioned with scoop neckline, empire waist, elbow-length sleeves and A-line skirt with chapel train. She wore a mantilla trimmed with lace like that on the neckline and sleeves of the gown, and carried a prayer book covered with a cascade bouquet of white roses and ivory. Miss Nancy M. Cahill of Wellesley was the maid of honor while bridesmaids were Miss Nancy C. Sharpe, sister of the bride, and Miss Susan Wales, both also of Wellesley. They were identically attired in two-tone sheath gowns, the tops of Romance blue and the skirts of a lighter blue. Their headdresses were Romance blue Dior bows with circular veils. The maid of honor carried a cascade of yellow carnations and sweetheart roses but the bridesmaids carried only yellow roses.

The mother of the bride chose a two-piece suit of ballet blue silk linen, a matching flowered hat and a corsage of yellow Cymbidium orchids. The groom's mother wore a pale pink suit, a matching hat decorated with pearls and bright pink Cymbidium orchids.

Mr. John F. Sullivan of Randolph was his brother's best man. Mr. George H. Sharpe, Jr., of Wellesley, brother of the bride, ushered with Mr. Chester Duval of Lexington.

The bride is a graduate of Wellesley High School and Chandler School for Women in Boston. Mr. Sullivan is a member of the Class of 1966 at the University of Massachusetts. They spent their honeymoon on Cape Cod.
